

Frontiers of Microeconometrics

-Theory and Applications-

March 15 and 16, 2008
Lecture Hall No.2
Faculty of Economics
University of Tokyo

Presenters:

Ken Chay (Brown University)
Victor Chernozhukov (MIT)
Han Hong (Stanford University)
Pat Kline (Yale University)
Erik Plug (University of Amsterdam)
Elie Tamer (Northwestern University)

We are asking that all participants in the conference register in advance.

Please contact us at cemanopa@e.u-tokyo.ac.jp by March 7, stating your name and affiliation.

Program can be downloaded from the CIRJE website: <http://www.e.u-tokyo.ac.jp/cirje/index.html>

Organizing Units:

The 21st Century COE Program "Normative Evaluation and Social Choice of Contemporary Economic Systems" (COE/RES), Hitotsubashi University

The 21st Century COE Program "The Relationship between Market Economy and Non-Market Institutions" (CEMANO), University of Tokyo,

The 21st Century COE Program "Behavioral Macrodynamics based on Surveys and Experiments", Osaka University

The 21st Century COE Program "Interfaces for Advances Economic Analysis" , Kyoto University

The Kikawada Foundation

Center for International Research on the Japanese Economy (CIRJE), University of Tokyo